FROM THE DESK OF MS. HAUGEN

Good morning, happy 35th week of school! What an incredible week we had last week. Thank you to everyone who came out to support their students at the spring concert. Your support means so much to the students and to me.

We have ONE MORE active week before we officially close out our season.

This week we kick off next year with our Symphonic Band Auditions (during class). If your student has AP exams during both classes this week, they can schedule a time after school to complete the audition. The Audition is for ALL current students in the program and consists of 12 major scales, chromatic scale (all from memory), an etude and a written test. The written test is only a few questions long and should take less than 15 minutes to complete.

We also have drum line auditions happening this week from 4:30-6:30!!

Silent Auction Baskets

We started our online auction last Thursday evening. You have until May 14th to place your bids! Baskets will be available for pick-up at the Band Banquet (or in my office). Take advantage of over $3,000 in donated items here: <https://go.rallyup.com/lincoln-trojan-band/Campaign/Details?ReturnUrl=%2FCampaigns%2FSetup%2Fc51f60%2FAuction> or on our website at www.lincolntrojanband.com

Interest Meeting

We officially welcome all students (and parents) participating in band next year to register and attend our Interest Meeting on Friday, May 13th at 6pm in the auditorium. Students will need their marching instrument. We will go over procedures, forms, uniforms, etc. as well as introduce the 2022 halftime show. Then we will take the students to another room and pass out stand tune packets and (hopefully) the opener of the show while the parents discuss expectations for next year.

You can register for this event here:

Every year, I like to give the students some hints for them to guess what the halftime show will be for the fall. I wanted to share them with you as well just in case you want to play. So far, we have the following hints:

Good luck guessing the show!

Have a great week. Go trojans.
